1. BACKGROUND AND RATIONALE

In accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 23 of the RTE Act, the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) vide Notification dated 23rd August, 2010 subsequently amended from time to time has laid down the minimum qualifications for a person to be eligible for appointment as a teacher for class I to VIII. It had been inter alia provided that one of the essential qualifications for a person to be eligible for appointment as a teacher in any of the schools referred to in Clause (n) of section 2 of the RTE Act is that he/she should pass the Teacher Eligibility Test (TET) which will be conducted by the appropriate Government in accordance with the Guidelines framed by the NCTE.

The rationale for including the TET as a minimum qualification for a person to be eligible for appointment as a teacher is as under:

- i. It would bring national standards and benchmark of teacher quality in the recruitment process;
- ii. It would induce teacher education institutions and students from these institutions to further improve their performance standards;
- iii. It would send a positive signal to all stakeholders that the Government lays special emphasis on teacher quality

The Ministry of Education, Govt. of India has entrusted the responsibility of conducting the Central Teacher Eligibility Test (CTET) to the Central Board of Secondary Education, Delhi.

2. SHORT TITLE

These rules will be called as “Central Teacher Eligibility Test Rules, 2011” (CTET).

The CTET will send the link of Question Paper attempted by the candidates on the email-id provided by the candidates in online application form after two to three days of conduct of examination. Thereafter the candidates can also seek a photocopy of their recorded responses along with calculation sheet after declaration of result of CTET by paying fee of Rs.500/- by way of Demand Draft in favour of Secretary, Central Board of Secondary Education drawn on any Nationalized bank and payable at Delhi.

24. DISPLAY OF ANSWER KEY FOR CHALLENGES

The CTET will display Provisional Answer Key of the questions on the CTET website: <https://ctet.nic.in> with a Public Notice issued to this effect on the said website, to provide an opportunity to the candidates to challenge the Provisional Answer Keys with a non-refundable prescribed fee as processing charges. The provisional Answer Keys are likely to be displayed for two to three days. Only paid challenges made during stipulated time will be considered. Challenges without payment of fee and those filed on any other medium (viz. email/letter/representation) will not be considered. The CTET's decision on the challenges shall be final and no further communication will be entertained. CTET will not inform the Candidates individually about their challenges. The subject experts will examine all the challenges received and then the final answer keys will be displayed. The result will be declared according to the final answer keys.

No grievance with regard to answer key(s) after declaration of result of CTET- DECEMBER 2022 will be entertained.

25. Test Practice Centres (TPCs)

In order to facilitate the candidates especially in remote and rural areas to enable them to practice and be comfortable in taking a Computer Based Test (CBT), all efforts are made to provide practice tests and questions so that candidates can familiarize themselves with logging into the system, go through the detailed instructions regarding the test, use the mouse or numeric keyboard on screen (virtual) for attempting each question, scroll down to the next question, navigate between questions, review and edit their options and submit answers. A list of such practice centers with address and contact details will be available on CTET website shortly. Candidates who are not well conversant and submitting face difficulties in the online test due to various constraints can use the services of these centers free of cost. A link for Test Practice will also be available on CTET website and candidates can also practice from their computer, laptop or mobile etc. at home.

26. LEGAL JURISDICTION

All disputes pertaining to the conduct of CTET shall fall within the jurisdiction of Delhi only. The Secretary, CBSE shall be the legal person in whose name the Board may sue or may be sued.
